

I offer this poem at the lotus feet of my beloved Guru and the Masters of our Lineage.

Guru Purnima Poem

Salutations and love to Lord Shiva,
the Supreme Guru the source of Grace.
Salutations and love to the Gurus who have gone before,
shining Divine Light into this dark place.

ॐ

Salutations and love to the Masters
who passed mystic power to Durga Swami.
Salutations and love to Guru Deva.
Salutations to those Gurus yet to be.

ॐ

Guru Deva, you are the seed in the mantra quietly waiting to be heard
Your presence and words soothe concerns immediately.
You walk beside and within, guiding and protecting
Constantly urging all towards their potentiality.

ॐ

Guru Deva , you love all creation yet are only attached to Lord Shiva.
You shine the mirror of Divine Love and Grace into the world.
You have knowledge of all, and with great humility inspire each one.
You carry the cost, yet rarely show signs of the burden unfurled.

ॐ

Salutations and respect to you Kabir.
At Guru Deva's lotus feet, you teach of love.
Salutations and thanks to you Kabir, the chosen one
Leading the way to higher vibrations and God above.

With humility, let's re-dedicate ourselves to the Supreme Guru, to our Gurus
With quiet resolve, in daily life let them not be far from you.
Remember their teachings and who you are. Keep them close
And connecting with the mantra, constantly stand before your Guru.
